THE GREAT REUNION.

Letter From General Gordon Concerning the Meeting.

The following letter from Gen. Gordon explains itself:

GEO. MOORMAN, Adjutant-General and Chief of Staff, 824 Common Street (apartments), New Orleans, La., May 5, 1900.

Gen. J. B. Gordon, Commanding United Confederate Veterans, respectfully requests that you will aid the patriotic and benevolent objects of the United Confederate Veterans by publishing immediately in your next issue, a notice of the reunion to take place at Louisville, Ky., on May 20th, 21st and June 1st, 2d, 3d, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, respectively, with editorial notice of the organization, or please publish this letter.

Sunday, June 2d, will be the ninety-second anniversary of the birth of our beloved ex-President Jefferson Davis, and is set apart for "Memorial Ceremonies" to the memory of Mr. Davis, who was born in Kentucky near by the scene of the Reunion, at the "Hospitable City of Louisville, Ky.," and thus unite with their comrades in carrying out the laudable and philanthropic objects of the organization.

It will be the largest reunion ever held, and the splendid Reunion Committee has provided comforts, pleasures and entertainments for the old Veterans, Spouses, Maids of Honor, Sons and Daughters of Veterans, Military Escorts, and all visitors of all classes, upon the most magnificent scale ever before attempted. Please urge all Veterans, Sons and Daughters and their families and friends to attend without fail.

Business of the greatest importance will demand careful consideration during the Reunion. Annual Reunion—such as the best methods of securing impartial history, and to enlist each State in the compilation and preservation of the history of their citizen soldiers; the benevolent care through State and otherwise, of disabled, destitute or aged veterans and the widows and orphans of our fallen brothers-in-arms; the care of the graves of our known and unknown dead buried at Gettysburg, Fort Warren, Camps Morton, Chase, Douglas, Oakland Cemetery at Chicago, Johnson's Island, Cairo and at all other points; to see that they are annually decorated, the headstones preserved and protected, and complete lists of names of our dead heroes with the location of their last resting-place furnished to their friends and relatives through the medium of our camps, thus rescuing their names from oblivion and handing them down in history; to assist the noble "Daughters of the Confederacy" to complete the monument to the memory of Jefferson Davis, President of the Confederate States of America, and to aid in building monuments to other great leaders, soldiers and sailors of the South; to make such changes in the Constitution and by-laws as experience may suggest and other matters of general interest.

Rev. B. M. Palmer, D. D., the great Southern Divine, who devoted himself to Ministerial Service in the Army of Tennessee during the war, has consented to deliver the Oration at the opening exercises on May 20th.

Total number of camps now admitted 124 with applications in for nearly one hundred more.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF AN EXCELLENT FRAME DWELLING ON TWENTY-THIRD STREET BETWEEN R AND S STREETS, IN FAIRMONT, WITH NEARLY ALL THE MODERN CONVENIENCES AND WITH STABLE, CARRIAGE-HOUSE, ETC. EAST OF AND ADJACENT TO THE CITY OF RICHMOND.—By virtue of a deed of trust to the undersigned, dated October 16, 1895, and duly recorded in the office of the clerk of the City of Richmond, in Deed-Book 150 "B," page 78, there having been default in the payment of a portion of the debt thereby secured, as being directed so to do by the beneficiary, I will sell, by public auction, on the premises, on

THURSDAY, MAY 10, 1900,

at 8 o'clock P. M., the excellent DWELLING above referred to, together with the attractive lot on which it stands, fronting 40 feet on the west side of Twenty-third Street between R and S Streets. The house contains all the modern conveniences, is supplied with water, gas, and by means of a wind-mill, and is altogether one of the most desirable and comfortable homes to be found anywhere. The lot is very broad, and has a good stable and carriage-house on the rear.

TERMS: Cash. N. W. BOWE, Trustee.

N. B.—The auctioneer, in his individual capacity, will lend to the buyer a large sum of money for a term of years. By C. H. Oliver, Auctioneer, my5 No. 20 East Broad Street.

EXECUTOR'S AUCTION SALE OF

Large and Attractive Lot

ON THE SOUTH SIDE OF BROAD BETWEEN TWENTY-SIXTH AND TWENTY-SEVENTH STREETS. JUST THE CHURCH HILL

As executor of J. S. Forbes, deceased, I will sell, by auction, on the premises, on

THURSDAY, MAY 10, 1900,

AT 5:30 O'CLOCK P. M., the above-mentioned VALUABLE PROPERTY, the lot has a frontage of 50 feet by depth of 125 feet to alley in rear. It is useless to state that this is the most desirable location on Church Hill, and a sum of a lot. It will be offered separately and as a whole, thus giving all comers an opportunity to buy a single lot of the entire property.

TERMS: One-third cash; residue at six months, credit payments to be evidenced by notes, with interest added, and secured by JOHN MANN, JR., Executor.

By McVeigh & Glinn, Real Estate Auctioneers, No. 1112 East Main Street.

EXECUTOR'S SALE

Nos. 901 and 903 East Byrd St.

CORNER OF NINTH AND BYRD STREETS.

At the request of the executor of C. McNamara's estate, we will offer for sale, at public auction, on the premises, on

THURSDAY, MAY 10, 1900,

at 5 o'clock P. M., those TWO DESIRABLE AND WELL-LOCATED BRICK STORIES, known as Nos. 901 and 903 East Byrd Street. The improvements consist of two good stories, with dwelling apartments over the store, a front porch, each. The lot fronts 44 feet 8 inches, more or less, on the south side of Byrd Street, and runs back on the east line of Ninth Street 150 feet, more or less, to an alley in common 13 feet wide.

This property should command the attention of all real estate buyers, as it is occupied by good tenants, is on the main thoroughfare between Richmond and Manchester. It is near several railroad depots, and is a No. 1 business stand.

TERMS: One-third cash; balance at six months, with interest added, and secured by JOHN MANN, JR., Executor.

By C. H. Oliver, Auctioneer, 20 East Broad Street.

SALE OF GROCERIES, STORE FIXTURES, REFRIGERATOR, ETC.

At the request of Mr. P. H. Smith, who is declining business on account of health, I will sell at his store, No. 421 West Marshall Street,

THURSDAY, MAY 10, 1900,

at 11 o'clock A. M., his entire stock of groceries, consisting of two barrels of molasses, one barrel of vinegar, one glass front double refrigerator, flour, bacon, canned and bottled goods, cakes, crackers, meal, soap, meat racks, tools, etc. These goods are fresh and should command the attention of the trade.

C. H. OLIVER, Auctioneer.
